PARIS

- Eiffel Tower - is an iron lattice tower located on the Champ de Mars in Paris. It was named after the engineer Gustave Eiffel, whose company designed and built the tower.
- Arc de triomphe - is one of the most famous monuments in Paris. It honours those who fought and died for France in the French Revolutionary and the Napoleonic Wars, with the names of all French victories and generals inscribed on its inner and outer surfaces. Beneath its vault lies the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier from World War I.

BRUSSELS

- Manneken Pis - is a landmark 61 cm bronze fountain sculpture in central Brussels, Belgium, depicting a puer mingens or naked little boy urinating into the fountain's basin.
- The Grand Place - is the central square of Brussels, It is surrounded by opulent Baroque guildhalls of the former Guilds of Brussels and two larger edifices.

AMSTERDAM

- Canal cruises in Amsterdam - are a great way to experience the landscape, history and culture. Take an Amsterdam boat tour and watch the scenery glide past.
- Giethoorn Village - is a mostly car-free village. It's known for its boat-filled waterways, footpaths, bicycle trails and centuries-old thatched-roof houses.
- Zaanse Schans - is a neighborhood in the Dutch town of Zaandam, near Amsterdam. Historic windmills and distinctive green wooden houses were relocated here to recreate the look of an 18th/19th-century village.
- Dam Square - is a town square in Amsterdam, the capital of the Netherlands. Its notable buildings and frequent events make it one of the best-known and most important locations in the city and the country.
